Time: 3:00 PM to 3:55 PM

Disruptive HEROes at Work

Women have come a long way toward equality in the workplace but there is still much more work to do. On this panel are women leaders who have successfully navigated a world where both women and people of color are at a distinct disadvantage. This panel's speakers will share candid personal stories and practical advice as they confront, among other things, the perpetual underrepresentation of women in leadership at organizations.

Time: 3:00 PM to 3:55 PM

Navigate Immigration Law Today

Immigration is one of the most dynamic policy areas in the current administration. This panel of immigration lawyers will go beyond the headlines to offer timely policy and legal analysis and discussion on immigration. Our experts will share stories of their experiences navigating the sweeping changes to enforcement at the border and in the U.S. interior, legal challenges to executive orders, changes to refugee resettlement, and possible reform of the legal immigration system, among other topics.

Time: 3:00 PM to 3:55 PM

Impact Beyond Borders

A growing number of disruptive and mission-driven professionals are successfully moving in new, less traveled directions. Join the discussion with these disruptive entrepreneurs and agents of change who are executing successful and uncommon business models that operate across borders are making a profound impact in their environment. Don't miss an opportunity to interact with the panel and gain insights into the opportunities and realities of a variety of international and unorthodox endeavors.
